Physical Seminar on “Dubious Transactions and Loans - Enforcement Trends and Practical Insights”

Speakers:

Mr. William Wong
Partner, Howse Williams

Mr. Lester Fung
Consultant, Howse Williams

Mr. Sean Lam
Senior Managing Director, FTI Consulting

(Course Code : 202025)

Highlight:

In recent years, there has been increased scrutiny by regulatory authorities such as the Securities and Futures Commission, Accounting and Financial Reporting Council and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange over dubious transactions and loans involving listed companies. Leveraging their experience, the speakers will discuss the enforcement trends and share their practical insights in identifying and investigating these transactions.

By reference to real-life and hypothetical examples, our speakers will share their insights in the following areas:

1. Enforcement trends and regulatory expectations;
2. Best practices & compliance tips;
3. Practical insights in identifying and investigating dubious transactions, including fund flow analysis, evidence collection, management of stakeholders, etc.

The seminar is not only useful for our practicing CPAs, but also directors and senior management of listed companies, etc.

About the Speakers:-

Mr. William Wong

Partner

Howse Williams | Disputes and Regulatory Lawyer

William specialises in contentious regulatory work and financial services and commercial litigation with almost 20 years of experience. He represents both institutional and individual clients in investigations by regulatory authorities and law enforcement agencies in Hong Kong on a wide range of matters, including market misconduct, money-laundering, bribery and corruption, mis-selling, internal controls failure, fraud, employee whistleblowing and data breaches.

On the advisory side, leveraging his in-house experience William provides counsel on a broad range of regulatory and compliance issues concerning financial institutions and listed companies, including new business initiatives (the drafting of client agreements), licensing issues, internal controls enhancements, as well as emerging trends such as the use of Tech and virtual assets.

William has been ranked by leading legal directories since 2018, including Legal 500 ("Next Generation Lawyer" for Disputes Resolution), IFLR1000 ("Rising Star Partner" in Financial Services Regulatory), Who's Who Legal ("Future Leader" in Investigations), LexisNexis ("40 Under 40") and China Business Law Journal ("20 Rising Stars in international firms").

About the Speakers (cont'd):-

Mr. Lester Fung

Consultant

Howse Williams | Disputes and Regulatory Lawyer

Lester's practice predominantly focuses on resolving financial regulatory matters. He advises on a range of compliance and market misconduct issues, internal investigations and regulatory due diligence in significant transactions. Lester's clients include financial institutions, listed companies, fund managers, crypto exchanges, directors and independent committees, etc. He also works closely with forensic accountants and financial advisers.

In addition, Lester has abundant experience in handling commercial disputes and insolvency and restructuring matters, drawing on his substantial involvement in some high-profile and precedent-setting insolvencies in recent years, notably in the PRC real estate sector.

Lester is a fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and member of the Restructuring and Insolvency Faculty of the HKICPA. He holds a specialist qualification in insolvency awarded by the HKICPA and has previously co-authored the Hong Kong chapter of leading practitioners' text on payments law and data privacy.

Lester is qualified to practise in Hong Kong and Greater Bay Area of Mainland China.

About the Speakers (cont'd):-

Mr. Sean Lam
Senior Managing Director
FTI Consulting

Sean Lam is a Senior Managing Director in the Forensic & Litigation Consulting segment of FTI Consulting, and he is based in Hong Kong.

Sean has over nineteen focused years of professional services experience in forensic accounting, fraud investigation and litigation support. He has significant experience in a range of high-stakes, cross-jurisdiction projects, specialising on forensic accounting review and investigation of white-collar crime, accounting irregularities and other complex regulatory investigations. He has also been appointed as a testifying expert in legal proceedings in the Hong Kong High Court.

Sean has significant exposure to conducting investigations into suspected accounting irregularities of Hong Kong, U.S. and other foreign listed companies with principal business operations in the People's Republic of China ("PRC"). In this role, Mr. Lam regularly applies commercial, accounting and finance skills in examining historical financial, operational and transactional records, conducting fund tracing analyses and performing detailed analyses to establish the accuracy and completeness of those records. The results of Mr. Lam work are frequently presented to corporate boards, audit committees and legal advisors, together with regulatory and enforcement authorities in Hong Kong and abroad.

Sean has led and worked on a broad range of investigation and forensic accounting engagements. One of Sean's current engagements involve the "biggest investigation of market malfeasance" in Hong Kong's history, in relation to a tangled web of 50 Hong Kong listed companies, also a subject matter of global media coverage. In particular, Sean's investigation has identified evidence of a string of irregular transactions, including loan fraud, market manipulation, misappropriation of company funds, as well as capital raising transactions that were designed to defraud minority shareholders.
